

K-Love is a very important radio station for my family. It is a very uplifting clean radio station. We are able to listen to this channel in our car when traveling on our FM station. I feel as though this country needs uplifting music and being able to have access to it means a lot to people in need of spiritual encouragement. Please leave our station alone.